Albany is a city of homes. It wouldn't be if it were not for your local merchants. Homes do not make a city. Support them, your property values depend on it!

Here's What They Said About 1949

QUESTION: Was 1949 a good year for you?

WILLIAM BLANK, 725 Talbot (realtor): "Yes. Having bought Albany's oldest homes, I've seen all kinds of fun remodeling and things, not to mention the satisfaction of owning my own home."

ANDREW POIRIER, 1215 10th (junior bookkeeper): "Yes. I secured a good job after graduation from high school, and have now started saving for the future of my wife and I."

WILLIAM M. STEWART, Albany (Education Center, clerk): "I'm quite satisfied with 1949, if not for other reasons than that I have the example of an earlier year, 1948, I exchanged Chicago's snow and slush for San Francisco's sun and wind."

WILLIAM CONLON, 1103 Key (Blvd., clerk): "Yes. I have enjoyed good health and have my share of material things."

WILLIAM R. SESSIONS, 1057 So- (Ave., public accountant): "Yes. Narrowing profit in business—because of the increasing costs in the business—have made business more appreciative of good earnings."

CATHERINE J. WEBB, 843 (Albany Ave., nursery school teacher): "Things for me have been very good, but I have seen very much which is heartbreaking. To see children go hungry while crops are destroyed doesn't make me happy, or to see the lines at the unemployment office and welfare centers."

WILLIAM BERT HILL, 905 (Albany Ave., merchant): "Very good year. Slight decline the quarter until December 15. Expected to be a good year with increase in business about 10 per cent."

WILLIAM WHITE, 1750 Solano, real (tor): "Yes. It gave me more than I could handle."

WILLIAM PIMENTAL, -801 San (Albany Ave., Albany Fire Chief): "Year 1949 has been an excellent year for the fire department, very little fire losses. Thanks to the wonderful cooperation of our citizens."

WILLIAM & MRS. J. D. O'KEEFE, San (Pablo Ave., restaurant): "Yes. We in our family have enjoyed good health and friendship of many fine Albany friends. It looks like a bright prospect for the new year."

WILLIAM CREWE, 1003 Solano Ave., (Albany): "Looking back over the year, it has been a wonderful year. I have enjoyed it tremendously and had a glorious insight into so many things which will help me better in 1950."

MRS. BEATRICE RAYMOND, San (Pablo Ave., realtor): "Yes. I have had enough to eat, a place to live, good health and caught up on my feet now and then."

WILLIAM W. BEEMER, 820 San (Albany Ave., insurance agent): "Yes. My wife has been in good health. I realized more that I'm living in a community that is far sighted in providing good schools, police and fire departments and many things that make Albany a desirable place to live."

WILLIAM TRAPANESE, 1016 Ramona (Albany Ave., insurance agent): "Yes. My wife has been in good health. I realized more that I'm living in a community that is far sighted in providing good schools, police and fire departments and many things that make Albany a desirable place to live."

Once again that jolly old bewhiskered gent from the northland has come and gone leaving countless gifts for the whole family. ## Rotarians Lead Service League

Albany Rotary Club's pin smashers took a clean cut lead in the local service league last Thursday night at Albany Bowl.

Leader Auto Supply team forfeited its three games to the Rotarians because of sickness, while the Exchange Club lost three hard fought games to the Albany Jaycee aggregation.

In the play-offs, Frank Lacy for the Rotarians took the night's high series with a smashing 483, followed closely by Bob Benefield's 479.

Jack Flynn, anchor man for the Jr. Chamber, lead his team with 451, while Bill Lacy scored a 475 high for the Exchangers.

The service league will take to the lanes again on January 5 for a continuance of this slaughter. The Rotarians meet the Exchange Club, who after last week's debacle are out for blood, while the revived Jaycees meet the Leader Auto Club.

Excerpts From The Avenues

By GENE EPPLER

Old Man '49 took one last glimpse of Albany today, and confident he was leaving a good year behind, sat back in snug satisfaction awaiting the arrival of the infant '50.

As his glance took him along the avenues, still glittering with Christmas decorations, the Old '49er's eyes sparkled in admiration as he began a bit of reminiscing.

Entertainment in Albany was never lacking. Folk dancing and bowling rated high on the popularity poll, and there was always something for the younger generation at the Albany "Y," Recreation Dept. or school recreation programs. Everyone had fun at the big Fourth of July Parade and Celebration, the Soroptimist Varieties of 1949, the Cornell-Vista Dads' First Annual Sport Show. The American Legion is still staging the best smokers in Northern California, and the big historical pageant presented by the combined schools last May will give the infant '50 plenty of competition. For the whitest lovers, there was no less than "365" parties throughout the year.

Perhaps most of the controversial issues developed in the City Council sessions. The week-after-week debate over the installation of parking meters, along with Mrs. Kathie Zahn's referendum petitions and the launching of her "one-woman campaign against rats, flies, and mosquitoes." The boosting of the garbage rate from 50 to 75 cents caused a bit of excitement, but on the other hand, the taxpayers received a 10 cent cut in municipal taxes. The Albany Schools put their $282,000 bond issue over, approved by the voters 6 to 1.

Mrs. F. J. Sexton, president of the Thousand Oaks Society, will conduct a business meeting at 11 a. m., followed by a luncheon at 12 noon. Circle One are hostesses. For reservations call Mrs. R. W. Norton, L.A. 5-0538.

Friends and members are invited to attend.

Top Stories of '49

The 10 stories of 1949 rated as tops in news interest by the United Press shows President Truman's announcement that Russia had the A-bomb to be the biggest of all.

The story broke on September 23 and is rated by newsmen not only as the biggest story of the year but probably since V-J Day. Without doubt, it marked a new era in atomic history—one which may be almost as important as the original development of the atom bomb itself.

Other stories rated according to news importance were the over-running of China by the Communists, the coal-steel strikes, the challenge of armed forces unification by naval officials, conviction of the 11 top Communists, tragic death of Kathy Fiscus in a well pipe, the collision between a jet fighter plane and an airliner over Washington, the trial and conviction of Cardinal Mindszenty in Hungary, Vice-President Barkley's wedding, and the terrifically close finish in the big league pennant races.

Other stories which would rate high include the signing of the Atlantic Pact, the lifting of the Berlin blockade, establishment of peace in the Holy Land, formation of the West German Republic, devaluation of the British pound and Tito's split with the Kremlin.

The present investigation into the alleged shipment of atomic information and materials to Russia during the war is another top story in the making.

Like its recent predecessors, 1949 was not a dull year for news.

Rezoning Appeal Rejected

Albany City Councilmen Tuesday night unanimously rejected an application of E. A. Crewe, of 1103 Solano Ave., for rezoning two lots on Albany Hill for the purpose of building a duplex.

The request was denied in a second hearing Tuesday night after a petition with names of 28 persons opposing the "spot zoning" was presented to the Council. The petition represented 34 per cent of the affected property owners.

Opposition was expressed in a letter from Lester G. French, of 828 Polk St., who pointed out that "those who built or bought homes on Albany Hill did so when it was zoned as first residential." He said that "spot zoning" would be detrimental to the appearance of the city.

Speaking from the floor, Mr. and Mrs. Crewe appealed for approval, saying that a single duplex on a 50-foot lot would add to the appearance of the neighborhood, instead of two houses on 25-foot lots.

Crewe's first request was denied by the Council, but a second hearing was granted after the Park, Planning and Zoning Commission recommended approval of the rezoning of the lot.

Councilmen explained that applications for rezoning are rejected if more than 20 per cent of the affected property owners protested it.

A petition signed by 28 residents of Key Route Blvd. requested that Key Route's name be changed to "Memorial Lane" or "Memorial Drive."

The Council referred the matter to the Street Department for further consultation with El Cerrito officials, who also favor the name change.

Polio Dime Drive Opens January 16

Albany will join the rest of Alameda County in the annual March of Dimes for infantile paralysis victims beginning January 16, the appeal to be headed here by Joseph Villa and Del Courtney, local businessmen.

Villa, veteran March of Dimes campaigner, has served as chairman of the appeal here for several years. He named Courtney to be his aide "because we must step up the drive on every front—1949 is being described as the blackest polio year in the history of the nation.

Albany Theatre To Get Modern Front, Marquee

The Albany Theatre will soon be transformed into a modern screen palace.

Work started this week on the remodeling of the exterior of the theatre which is expected to be completed in March, 1950, according to Bill Garren, owner.

The modernization program includes a new marquee, designed after San Francisco's RKO Golden Gate, and a new plaster front, with the facing from the sidewalk to the marquee of Colorado travertine marble.

New aluminum poster cases will be installed with fluorescent lighting, while indirect lighting and plastic letters will be used for the new display sign just above the marquee. Solid neon letters will be used in the new vertical display sign, which will extend 60 feet above the sidewalk. A new sidewalk of colorful terrazo will replace the old.

Garren, who is also an architect, designed the remodeling program, and Marvin Collins is the general contractor.

The Albany first opened in March, 1935, with a seating capacity of 500. The balcony loge section was added shortly before the last war, increasing the seating to 730. New interior decorations and carpets were added last year.

Garren said a big 15th Anniversary celebration will be held in March on completion of the work.

ALBANY SOROPTIMIST SCRIBBLINGS

Helen Mickelsen, recently returned from Europe, was guest speaker Wednesday at the weekly luncheon of the Soroptimist Club of Albany at Gaeta's Coffee Shop.

Speaking on "Dependent Schools in Germany," Miss Mickelsen told of her interesting experiences as a first grade teacher while serving with the Dependent Schools Detachment in Augsburg, Germany.

Miss Mickelsen, one of 120 teachers selected for the work, gave the local Soroptimist a vivid comparison of the American and German School systems.

The American policy in Germany is to observe, advise and assist, she pointed out. The schools, however, are under full German control. All books must be paid for by the parents, consequently, resulting in an acute shortage of books in the schools.

"Education is one place the Americans could make an impression on the German people, which would be lasting and most worthwhile," she concluded.

The speaker was introduced by Ruby Kampe, program chairman.

Birthday greetings were extended to Louise Storck, who in return made the usual contribution to the Birthday Box.

Sally Nelson was appointed to represent the Soroptimist Club on the general council of the Community Chest.

Minnie Lou Eakin extended an invitation to members to attend a tea at her home Thursday afternoon honoring Mrs. Bertha Scholtz, an Albany civic leader for many years.

Regional directors at the conference held recently in Berkeley recommended that each club adopt a school in Germany as a club project.

After hearing Miss Mickelsen's talk, it was the consensus that the project might be worth while if it could be accomplished.

The regular business meeting will be held next Wednesday.

"We must make the drive a record breaker if all of our local victims are to receive proper care during the coming year," Villa said.

From county March of Dimes headquarters, 517 Fourteenth St., Oakland, John F. Hassler, who is heading the drive throughout the area, has issued an appeal for volunteers to help in preparing and distributing thousands of supplies. He said that 175,000 coin cards will be mailed Alameda County residents when the drive opens, and in addition, many will receive special appeals letters.

Over 3,000 coin collection boxes for "easy giving" will be placed in stores, banks and public buildings throughout the county.

School children in many areas will be asked to contribute. Miniature coin cards will be distributed to them through their classroom teachers.

Already many advance gifts in both large and small amounts have been received at campaign headquarters, Hassler said.

Volunteers may call GLencourt 2-2806 for information.

Christmas Party Fetes PTA Board

Executive Board members of the Vista PTA were entertained last week at a Christmas party held at the home of the presidents, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Ellinger, of 916 Jackson.

The evening was highlighted with games and the exchange of gifts. Cash and food contributions were collected for the Christmas baskets.

Attending the Yule festival were Mesdames F. M. Brown, Albert Calder, Charles Irwin, Leslie Hanchett, John Kollenbaum, Herbert Minster, Carlos Pearce, William Pratt, Stanley Schaugard, A. J. Schumacher, Harold Senne, H. C. Selle, Peter Ward, Harry C. Weaver and M. W. Weiner.

Plans for a whist party to be held at the school on January 13 will be on the business agenda at the January 4 meeting of the Board.

Explorer Scout Post Holds Court of Honor

Explorer Scout Post No. 212, led by Post Advisor Les Simonsen, held a court of honor and a pot-luck dinner recently in the lodge at Camp Herns at which Gerald Rendahl was awarded his eagle pin, highest rank in Boy Scouting.

During the ceremonies, Gerald heard his entire Scout history repeated by candlelight, following which his mother pinned the eagle emblem on his uniform. Gerald in turn pinned the eagle miniature on Mrs. Rendahl, and Allan Jelten presented him with an eagle ring on behalf of the Post.

Others who received awards during the court of honor were Jim Wokemen, Kenneth Gordon, Douglas Cornell, Walter Hale and Eagle Scout Jim Roberts, who received a silver palm.

The Post is sponsored by Albany Eagles.

Up on the Feather River, 30 miles east of Oroville, the massive new Cresta Powerhouse has been a construction attraction for sightseers for many months, is now on the job pouring out electricity. Its completion set a record in power plant construction... it is the sixth new P. G. and E. power plant put into service during the last eighteen months. With the addition of Cresta's 101,000 horsepower—a total of 694,000 horsepower of new generating capacity has come on the line since V-J Day. Work is being rushed on additional plants which will add another 1,107,000 horsepower by mid-1951. The total horsepower from all of these new power plants will be 1,801,000. This is about 6 per cent of the total of new electric power facilities being built by all electric companies in the United States in the postwar period.

Homemaking Today
By Barbara Foote

Raisins are a boon to homemakers who want to add a little extra "something" to their cooking without going to great expense. Raisins dress up plain breads and will make your family snack lips over coffee cakes, cookies, muffins, scones, puddings and many other dishes. It is fortunate that they contain iron and other essential food values that make them "good for you" as well as good to eat.

When raisins are to be added to batters or doughs, pour hot water over them and then drain. They will soften while other ingredients are assembled and mixed.

These Chocolate Raisin Drops are what children like to find in the cookie jar when they come home from school. They are easy to make and the raisins keep them moist and fresh for a long time.

CHOCOLATE RAISIN DROPS
1 cup seedless raisins
2 (1 ounce) squares unsweetened chocolate
1/2 cup butter or margarine
1 cup granulated sugar
2 eggs
2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
1 1/4 cups quick-cooking oats

Rinse and drain raisins. Melt chocolate over hot water. Cream butter or margarine and sugar thoroughly. Blend in beaten eggs and melted chocolate. Sift together flour, salt, and soda and add to chocolate mixture. Stir in raisins, flavoring, and oats. Drop from teaspoon onto greased cookie sheet. Bake in oven preheated to 375° F. for 13 to 15 minutes. Makes about 2 1/2 dozen medium-sized cookies.

Countless hours were spent in 1949 by volunteer workers of Berkeley's Red Cross helping servicemen and veterans, according to a summary of the year's activities released today.

The official words of the congressional charter of the American Red Cross read, "To act in matters of voluntary relief... and as a medium of communication between the people of the United States of America and their Army and Navy."

In simpler terms this meant in 1949 hundreds of volunteer workers giving thousands of hours of service through the Red Cross to help veterans and servicemen.

Each month it meant more than 50 Gray Ladies who spent nearly 7000 hours during 1949 with patients at the U. S. Naval Hospital (Oak Knoll) and at Livermore Veterans Hospital. To the hospitalized veterans and servicemen it meant someone to do shopping, teach handicraft, arrange ward parties and

Year in Life of Question People
During 1949, the majority of American people were only slightly more curious about the atomic bomb than about the age of Ezio Pinza. And, believe it or not, "Where can I find an apartment?" failed to make the list of the 25 questions asked most during the year.

Among the top 25 as reported in the December issue of Cosmopolitan magazine, were such questions as: What does the S. stand for in Harry S. Truman (Nothing.); How many people are there in the world? (2,265,000,000); What is the longest word in the English language? (Antidisestablishmentarianism); How long does an elephant carry its young? (18 to 22 months); and Do American Indians have beards? (Sparse ones).

Sources for the report included the New York Public Library, the "Encyclopaedia Britannica," the information bureau of New York's leading newspaper, and radio's "Answer-Man."

Among the most interesting of the frequently-asked questions in 1949 were: "Where can I find a copy of the world's greatest poem—something about 'The Orange Boat'?" (The library automatically reaches for Omar Khayyam's "Rubay Yacht"); "Can I get a Seeing Eye dog if I save five hundred red strips from around cigarette packages?"; and "Where can I get a thousand dollars for a 1918 Indian head penny?"

Homemaking Today

By Barbara Foote
P. G. and E. Home Economist, Oakland

Wild duck is one of the highlights of the winter season for those lucky families that have a sharpshooter in the household. If your hunter brings home some duck you may want to serve it for one of your holiday meals.

Wild duck usually has a strong flavor which some people consider undesirable. To remove this, soak the bird in a solution of salt water to which one tablespoon of soda has been added. Rinse the bird thoroughly and dry. Stuff with an apple and celery mixture. This stuffing is not served, it is used to absorb the strong flavor.

To roast wild duck—Clean and dress. Stuff with apple and celery, rub generously with fat and place on a rack in a shallow pan. If you like the duck rare, roast in oven preheated to 500° F. for 15 to 20 minutes, basting every 5 minutes with a mixture of melted butter or margarine, salt and Worcestershire sauce to taste. Remove stuffing and serve. For well done duck, roast at 450° F. for about 45 minutes.

WILD RICE STUFFING

Wash one cup rice, cover with boiling water, and set aside to soak for several hours. Drain off excess water. Sauté a minced onion in butter or bacon drippings until soft. Mix with soaked rice, add salt and pepper to taste. Stuff lightly into bird. Roast according to instructions for well-done duck given above.

BARBECUED WILD DUCK

Duck—split in half
4 teaspoons lemon juice
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
1 tablespoon butter
1 teaspoon tomato catsup

Make sauce by mixing all ingredients. Place duck, split side up, on broiler rack and place in oven, allowing five inches of space between source of heat and surface of duck. Broil one side, then the other until well browned, basting every few minutes with barbecue sauce. Season with salt and pepper and serve.

Freezing enables you to preserve wild duck for future meals. However, game laws do restrict the period for which it may be held in the freezer to ninety days after the end of the season.

Preparation for Freezing is the same as for domestic poultry. Dress, wash, and cool thoroughly. The duck may be packed whole or cut into pieces. Place in cellophane-lined boxes or wrap in moisture-vapor-proof paper. Be sure to wrap tightly to exclude all air. Cover package with stockinet to guard against freezing. Label to show weight and date and freeze immediately.
